

CANHI Contract Terms and Conditions

Sample Question: Will the month-over-month change in Canada's New Housing Price Index exceed [#.#%] in [month][year]?

Product Code: CANHI

Instructions: Statistics Canada publishes a monthly release of the New Housing Price Index. The index is published at 7:30 AM CT, typically in the third week of the month following the reference month. A schedule of the upcoming release dates can be found here. This contract is not subject to early Resolution.

Underlying: The underlying is the month-over-month change in value of the New Housing Price Index released by Statistics Canada. The value is shown as a percentage and can be found on Statistics Canada's Housing Price Index page here. Under the "Key Indicators" header, ensure the drop-down menu is displaying "Canada", and click on the "New Housing Price Index" link. On the right side of the screen, a box is shown titled, "New Housing Price Index – Canada" with the month of the release data and the headline value of the percentage monthly change which is the value used for the contract. The contract will resolve to "Yes" if the headline value of the percentage monthly change is greater than the value listed in the contract for the specified month. Links are provided for informational purposes only and the source agency may decide to publish the data at a different location at any time.

Resolution Time: 7:30 AM CT when Statistics Canada publishes the New Housing Price Index data.

Changes in Resolution Time: The Resolution Time of a Forecast Contract is dependent on the time that the Source Agency releases the Underlying data. There are circumstances in which ForecastEx will change the Resolution Time of a Contract as described below:

1. Delay by Source Agency: If the Source Agency delays the release of the underlying data required for Resolution, ForecastEx will delay the Resolution Time of the Contract until such data is released. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will release a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Resolution of the Contract has been delayed and release a second notice to its website informing Market Participants when the Contract is resolved.
2. Change in Release Schedule: ForecastEx sets the Resolution Time of each Contract based on either the published or anticipated release schedule of the Source Agency for the underlying data. If the Source Agency amends its release schedule or announces that it will publish the underlying data at a different time than anticipated, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, amend the Resolution Time of the Contract to match the updated release schedule when doing so is necessary to ensure the accurate and fair resolution of the contract. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants of the revised Resolution Time.
3. Event Review Process: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, initiate the event review process prior to Settlement which may delay the Resolution of a Contract. In these cases, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Contract's Outcome is under review.
4. Early Resolution: If a Forecast Contract Resolves based on whether a specific event occurs before a defined point in time, it will be subject to early resolution. For these Contracts, if the Outcome of the contract becomes determinable prior to the scheduled Resolution Time – either because the event has occurred (resolving “Yes”) or because it can no longer occur (resolving “No”) – ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, accelerate the Resolution Time of the Contract in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 413. Whether or not this Contract is subject to early resolution is specified in the Instructions section.

Expiration Time: Same as Resolution time.

Settlement Date: Unless the Outcome of the Contract is under review in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, Settlement of the Contract will occur no later than the day following Expiration Time.
