Sample Question: Will the price of palladium exceed $[###.##] on [date]?

Variables: [###.##]: The numeric price threshold used to determine contract resolution. [date]: The resolution date on which the palladium price is observed.

Product Code: METLD

Instructions: The daily settlement for Palladium Futures are published by the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, Inc. (“<<sourceAgencyShort>>”)¹ and reflects the official settlement price for these CME-listed palladium futures contracts. ForecastEx will reference the official daily settlement price of the front-month Palladium Futures contract for purposes of Contract resolution. A schedule of futures settlement periods is available on the CME Group website here. For each trading day, the applicable contract is the front-month Palladium Futures contract, defined as the nearest-to-expiration listed contract and applied for all days up to and including its final settlement date, as specified in CME’s published contract calendar. Settlement prices are determined by the CME in accordance with its established daily settlement procedures for Palladium futures and are published for each trading day. The CME disseminates settlement data through its market data systems and authorized distribution channels. This Contract is not subject to early Resolution.

Underlying: The Palladium Price Forecast Contract is resolved based on the official CME settlement price of the front-month Palladium Futures contract, as determined at the close of trading on the resolution date, which reflects the final daily settlement value established by the exchange for palladium futures contracts on the relevant trading date, calculated pursuant to CME rules and methodologies governing daily settlements. The Underlying can be accessed here, where CME settlement data for Palladium Futures is available. To locate the relevant value, navigate to the “Settlements” section of the Palladium Futures product page, select the applicable trading date, and identify the front-month contract. The settlement value is listed under the “Settlement” column for that contract. For Contract resolution purposes, ForecastEx uses only the settlement value of the front-month contract on the resolution date. Any subsequent revisions to settlement data or settlement values for other contract months are not considered. Links are provided for informational purposes only, and CME may determine to publish settlement data in a different location at any time.

If the Outcome of the Event Question is “Yes”, then holders of the “Yes” Position will be entitled to receive the Settlement Value of $1.00 per contract and holders of the “No” Position will receive $0.00. If the Outcome of the Event Question is “No”, then holders of the “No” Position will be entitled to receive the Settlement Value of $1.00 per contract and holders of the “Yes” Position will receive $0.00.

Incentive Coupon: Forecast Contracts earn a monthly incentive coupon payment based upon the contract's daily settlement value. The minimum coupon rate earned on Forecast Contracts is described in Rule 612(c) of the ForecastEx Rulebook available here. Some Members may pay their customers more than the minimum rate.

Resolution Time: 11:55 PM CT when the CME updates its settlements page.

Changes in Resolution Time: The Resolution Time of a Forecast Contract is dependent on the time that the Source Agency releases the Underlying data. There are circumstances in which ForecastEx will change the Resolution Time of a Contract as described below:

1. Delay by Source Agency: If the Source Agency delays the release of the underlying data required for Resolution, ForecastEx will delay the Resolution Time of the Contract until such data is released. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will release a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Resolution of the Contract has been delayed and release a second notice to its website informing Market Participants when the Contract is resolved.
2. Change in Release Schedule: ForecastEx sets the Resolution Time of each Contract based on either the published or anticipated release schedule of the Source Agency for the underlying data. If the Source Agency amends its release schedule or announces that it will publish the underlying data at a different time than anticipated, ForecastEx may amend the Resolution Time of the Contract to match the updated release schedule when doing so is necessary to ensure the accurate and fair resolution of the contract. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants of the revised Resolution Time.
3. Event Review Process: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, initiate the event review process prior to Settlement which may delay the Resolution of a Contract. In these cases, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Contract's Outcome is under review.
4. Early Resolution: If a Forecast Contract Resolves based on whether a specific event occurs before a defined point in time, it will be subject to early resolution. For these Contracts, if the Outcome of the contract becomes determinable prior to the scheduled Resolution Time – either because the event has occurred (resolving “Yes”) or because it can no longer occur (resolving “No”) – ForecastEx will accelerate the Resolution Time of the Contract in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 413. Whether or not this Contract is subject to early resolution is specified in the Instructions section.

Expiration Time: Same as Resolution time.

Settlement Time: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 603(b)(3), settlement will occur at 1:00 PM CT on the day of resolution if the Resolution Time is before 12:00 PM CT. If the Resolution Time is at or after 12:00 PM CT, settlement will occur at 1:00 PM CT the day following resolution.
