

RP Contract Terms and Conditions

Sample Question: Will the change in rent prices in [region] exceed [##]% in [month] [year]?

Variables: [region]: The geographic area as defined by the Bureau of Labor Statistics CPI-U publication.

[##]: The strike threshold expressed as a percentage. [month] [year]: The reference month and year of the CPI-U data release as designated by BLS.

Product Code: RP[region three letter code]

Instructions: The Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers is published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics according to a pre-announced monthly schedule at 7:30 AM CT. The schedule of release dates is available here. This contract is not subject to early Resolution.

Underlying: The Rent Price Change Forecast Contract is resolved based upon the year-over-year percentage change in the Rent of Primary Residence Index for the specified region as published by the US Bureau of Labor Statistics. The Underlying can be accessed here, where the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers is available. In the “All Urban Consumers (Current Series)” row, select the green box titled “One Screen”. Select the region or city of interest in the first box and select “Rent of Primary Residence” in the second box. The city listed in the Contract will be the first city listed in the region (i.e. “Boston” in the Contract will correspond to “Boston-Cambridge-Newton, MA-NH” on the BLS website). The full breakdown of region is provided by the BLS here. Ensure the “Not Seasonally Adjusted” box is selected and press “Get Data”. The table will display the year and month for each data release. Links are provided for informational purposes only and the source agency may decide to publish the data at a different location at any time.

Resolution Time: 7:30 AM CT when the BLS released the CPI data.

Changes in Resolution Time: The Resolution Time of a Forecast Contract is dependent on the time that the Source Agency releases the Underlying data. There are circumstances in which ForecastEx will change the Resolution Time of a Contract as described below:

1. Delay by Source Agency: If the Source Agency delays the release of the underlying data required for Resolution, ForecastEx will delay the Resolution Time of the Contract until such data is released. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will release a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Resolution of the Contract has been delayed and release a second notice to its website informing Market Participants when the Contract is resolved.
2. Change in Release Schedule: ForecastEx sets the Resolution Time of each Contract based on either the published or anticipated release schedule of the Source Agency for the underlying data. If the Source Agency amends its release schedule or announces that it will publish the underlying data at a different time than anticipated, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, amend the Resolution Time of the Contract to match the updated release schedule when doing so is necessary to ensure the accurate and fair resolution of the contract. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants of the revised Resolution Time.
3. Event Review Process: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, initiate the event review process prior to Settlement which may delay the Resolution of a Contract. In these cases, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Contract's Outcome is under review.
4. Early Resolution: If a Forecast Contract Resolves based on whether a specific event occurs before a defined point in time, it will be subject to early resolution. For these Contracts, if the Outcome of the contract becomes determinable prior to the scheduled Resolution Time – either because the event has occurred (resolving “Yes”) or because it can no longer occur (resolving “No”) – ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, accelerate the Resolution Time of the Contract in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 413. Whether or not this Contract is subject to early resolution is specified in the Instructions section.

Expiration Time: Same as Resolution time.

Settlement Date: Unless the Outcome of the Contract is under review in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, Settlement of the Contract will occur no later than the day following Expiration Time.

Trading Restrictions: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 509(h), persons are prohibited from participating in Rent Price Change Forecast Contracts if they: possess any material non-public information regarding the Contract, are employees of the Source agency, or are decisionmakers, who directly or indirectly have any influence on the Outcome of the Contract.
