

TRSI Contract Terms and Conditions

Sample Question: Will the [index type] transportation services index exceed [###.#] in [date]?

Product Code: TRSI[one letter index code]

Instructions: The Transportation Services Index is published by the Bureau of Transportation Statistics, typically two months after the reference month, in the second week of the month at 8:00 AM CT. A schedule of release dates is available here. This contract is not subject to early Resolution.

Underlying: The Transportation Services Index is resolved based on the value of the [index type] Transportation Services Index. The Transportation Services Index measures the volume of services provided by the U.S. transportation sector by tracking the movement of cargo and passengers across modes such as air travel, railroads, trucking, and public transit. The underlying can be accessed here. To find the report, select “Transportation Services Index” from the Topic drop-down menu and apply the filter. Clicking on the first link will take you to the most recent report. The underlying value will be found in the first blue box titled “[Month] [Year] [index type] Index.” Links are provided for informational purposes only, and the source agency may choose to publish the data at a different location at any time.

Changes in Resolution Time: The Resolution Time of a Forecast Contract is dependent on the time that the Source Agency releases the Underlying data. There are circumstances in which ForecastEx will change the Resolution Time of a Contract as described below:

1. Delay by Source Agency: If the Source Agency delays the release of the underlying data required for Resolution, ForecastEx will delay the Resolution Time of the Contract until such data is released. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will release a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Resolution of the Contract has been delayed and release a second notice to its website informing Market Participants when the Contract is resolved.
2. Change in Release Schedule: ForecastEx sets the Resolution Time of each Contract based on either the published or anticipated release schedule of the Source Agency for the underlying data. If the Source Agency amends its release schedule or announces that it will publish the underlying data at a different time than anticipated, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, amend the Resolution Time of the Contract to match the updated release schedule when doing so is necessary to ensure the accurate and fair resolution of the contract. In these circumstances, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants of the revised Resolution Time.
3. Event Review Process: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, initiate the event review process prior to Settlement which may delay the Resolution of a Contract. In these cases, ForecastEx will publish a public notice to its website informing Market Participants that the Contract's Outcome is under review.
4. Early Resolution: If a Forecast Contract Resolves based on whether a specific event occurs before a defined point in time, it will be subject to early resolution. For these Contracts, if the Outcome of the contract becomes determinable prior to the scheduled Resolution Time – either because the event has occurred (resolving “Yes”) or because it can no longer occur (resolving “No”) – ForecastEx may, at its sole discretion, accelerate the Resolution Time of the Contract in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 413. Whether or not this Contract is subject to early resolution is specified in the Instructions section.

Expiration Time: Same as Resolution time.

Settlement Date: Unless the Outcome of the Contract is under review in accordance with ForecastEx Rule 415, Settlement of the Contract will occur no later than the day following Expiration Time.

Trading Restrictions: In accordance with ForecastEx Rule 509(h), persons are prohibited from participating in Transportation Services Index Forecast Contracts if they: possess any material non-public information regarding the Contract, are employee of the Source agency, or are decisionmakers, who directly or indirectly have any influence on the Outcome of the Contract.
